

Subject: Terror Attack Claims PROUD Family Member

Dear Friends of Partners Reaching Out to Ulpanat Dolev-PROUD

We regret to inform you of the tragic death of Erez Orbach, Hy"d, grandson of Mimi and Shimon Tsadok, in the recent terror attack in Jerusalem. Erez was the son of Caryn and Urie Orbach of Alon Shvut and the eldest of their six children.

Mimi is the long time Director of Development for Ulpanat Dolev and Dolev Homes for Youth at Risk which PROUD supports. Erez was one of four victims killed when a terrorist rammed his truck into the soldiers as they were getting off a bus to tour the Jerusalem promenade. Seventeen soldiers were also injured.

Erez was a cadet in officer training school. His grandfather Moshe said at the funeral: "Erez had a health problem that precluded him from military service, but he didn't feel exempt. He fought to draft into the IDF and even though he was rejected by several committees, he stood his ground. In the last committee, he was asked why he was insisting on joining, and he responded: "That it was his duty"". A rabbi at the Yeshiva where Erez studied said in an interview: "He was one of the students who, even if you had a bad morning, could change your mood for the better... Erez was a student that even today I still learn from."

Mimi and Shimon can be reached by email at: mtsadok2@gmail.com or by phone in Israel at: 052-899-0546 or phone from the U.S.1-718-3032067.
